

Attorney General Jeff Landry Names Communications Team

BATON ROUGE, LA – Attorney General Jeff Landry has named his Communications Team.

“I trust the team named today to efficiently and effectively inform the public and the press on our progress of building an honest, ethical, and hardworking Department of Justice,” said General Landry.

The team members are as follows:

Millard Mulé is Communications Director. A graduate of Jesuit High School in New Orleans and the College of Charleston, Mulé previously served as General Landry’s campaign manager and his Congressional spokesman.

Ruth Wisher is Press Secretary. A native of Natchitoches and graduate of Northwestern State University, Wisher previously served as state director for the Women Speak Out PAC and policy coordinator for the Governor.

Caitlyn Bush is Communications Coordinator. A native of Jennings and graduate of Louisiana State University, Bush previously served as a legislative aide for the Chairman of the Senate Insurance Committee.
